

The HAWTHORNES

Set in attractive gardens The Hawthornes is a truly impressive detached property built in the reign of Queen Victoria. Both inside and out it is an imposing building and, following extensive renovation, it now offers modern all-round comfort for guests.

The Hawthornes is a friendly, family run, establishment where the owners, Harold and Lesley Price, always extend a warm personal welcome. Whether your visit is for business or pleasure they will do all they can to ensure you have an enjoyable and pleasant stay in the homely atmosphere they have created.

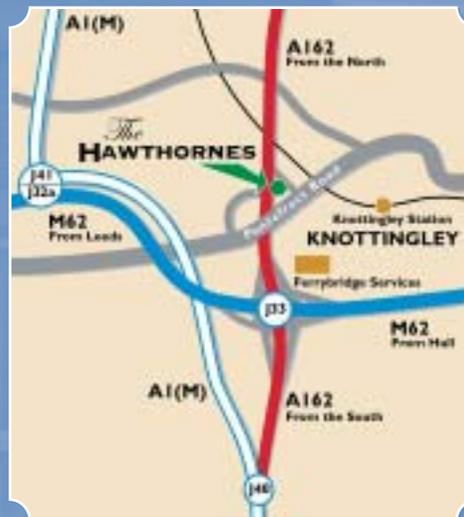

PLACES OF LOCAL INTEREST

The Hawthornes provides an ideal base for visiting the many attractions in the area:

Steeton Hall, Lotherton Hall, Bramham Park, Nostell Priory, Brodsworth Hall, Temple Newsam, Harewood House, Beningborough Hall, Cannon Hall, Yorkshire Sculpture Park, Yorkshire Showground, Yorkshire Mining Museum, RSPB site at Fairburn Ings, Xscape.

The HAWTHORNES

The spacious centrally-heated, en-suite; single, double and twin; bedrooms are tastefully decorated and all have 21" colour television, tea and coffee making facilities. Hair dryers, ironing and trouser press facilities are always available.

The comfortably furnished Lounge allows guests to unwind and relax before and after meals served in the Dining Room where traditional English breakfasts are served alongside cereals, fresh fruits, yoghurts, toast and croissants. The Hawthornes has an enviable reputation for the quality of its home-cooked breakfasts. Evening meals are also available on request.

For the overall comfort of guests accommodation is not available for very young children or pets. The Dining Room and bedrooms are non-smoking but seating areas are provided in the gardens for guests who wish to smoke.

The Hawthornes is set in its own well-tended gardens with a patio and a private secure parking area which is gated for maximum security.

LAPTOP FRIENDLY

The Hawthornes has wireless broadband to enable guests to access the web on their own laptops.
